Dear Mr. Wenzel:

Confirming our conversation, this letter will serve to acknowledge your turning over your advertising account to us, and herewith is an outline of the terms under which we are to operate.

We will undertake to handle all of your national advertising in North America to your express order.

All advertising space will be billed to you at the standard card rates which clearly show the commission payable to advertising agencies by the publisher. Where space is placed for you and no commission is provided by the publisher the agency reserves the right to add 15% commission.

All advertising production will be purchased for you by your order at the lowest possible price consistent with the quality or effect desired and billed to you at cost, plus the usual agency charge of 15%.

Any special services or expenditures carried on by the agency for you will be agreed upon beforehand, and only carried out on your express approval. Bills will be rendered to you in accordance with the standard practice, with earned discounts displayed on the fact thereof. These discounts to be taken by you when and as earned.

We should be pleased to assist you in the preparation of booklets, folders, etc., and be available to you for consultation in connection with your publicity.

It is understood that this agreement shall cover the period of the Calendar Year 1956 and may be terminated thereafter by either party upon 90 days' notice in writing. If terminated by your company, it will be accepted when all outstanding commitments made on your behalf have been paid to us.

THE ALBERT WOODLEY COMPANY

No commitments, oral or otherwise, exist between us except those contained herein.

Your signature to the copy of this letter will constitute an agreement of its terms.
